1. INTRODUCTION

LAP (also referred to hereinafter as the “Program”) was established by the Registered Nurses’ Association of Ontario (“RNAO”) in 1986. The goal is to assist individual participants in the Program with certain legal problems related to the professional practice of nursing (professional practice of nursing refers to all aspects of nursing as recognized by the College of Nurse of Ontario).

LAP is not insurance. It is a discretionary program and enrolment is voluntary. The LAP Administrator will receive and approve routine requests for legal assistance and provide eligible members with referral to a lawyer contracted by LAP. The LAP Committee, in its discretion, will decide if the Program will provide funding for fees of a lawyer of the participant’s choice.

The Program provides assistance to individuals in matters arising under the Nursing Act, 1993, and the Regulated Health Professions Act, 1993 of Ontario and any amending or superseding legislation. It also covers some employment matters and other matters where the participant is called as a witness arising out of an incident in nursing practice.

RNAO Board of Directors in consultation with the LAP Committee may, in its discretion, use LAP funds for legal cases to advance, support and advocate for the profession of nursing.

LAP is available to members of the RNAO who are enrolled in the Program, and is funded by contributions by such members who choose to participate in the Program. RNAO members who have not joined LAP would not be entitled to the assistance provided.

The detailed rules, regulations and exceptions governing the Program follow.

2. ELIGIBILITY

- (a) The eligibility requirements in order to be considered for legal assistance through LAP are as follows:
- (i) the person requesting legal assistance must have been a Registered Nurse with the College of Nurses of Ontario (“CNO”) at the time of the incident;
 - (ii) the incident must have occurred within the Province of Ontario;
 - (iii) the person requesting assistance must be a member or associate member of the RNAO;
 - (iv) the person requesting assistance must be a member of the Program at the time of the incident and remain a member continuously from the time of the incident until the case is resolved or the maximum assistance available from the program has been reached. Continuous membership is defined as membership in RNAO and LAP, which is renewed annually, for the entire membership year November 1 to October 31. The Committee may, at its discretion, consider exceptions to the foregoing.

- (v) Any person enrolled in LAP requesting assistance is deemed to have accepted the terms and conditions of the Program.
- (b) A person is no longer eligible and will not be considered for legal assistance through LAP if any of the eligibility requirements outlined above are not met.
- (c) The Committee may, at its discretion, consider exceptions to the foregoing.
