

Could you live on $585/month?

Not sure?

Step One:

Visit www.dothemath.thestop.org and take the on-line survey. Many people are not aware that single adults on Social Assistance can receive only $585/month for rent, food and everything else!

Step Two:

Take the Do the Math Challenge putfoodinthebudget.ca and show your support for an immediate $100/month increase to social assistance and set new rates that allow people to meet basic needs.
