Dear Dr. Mulrooney:

I would like to thank you and your organization for your participation and support at the Roundtable for Corrections Reform that was held on July 19, 2017, at the Courtyard Marriott in Toronto. It was a pleasure to meet you.

I found our discussions to be very informative and your valuable input will help support our ongoing work on this important issue and help us to achieve our overall goals for corrections reform. As part of this work, the ministry will continue to engage with key stakeholders and partners as we move forward with the development of the proposed legislation.

Thank you, also, for submitting your responses to the roundtable questions. We look forward to incorporating your feedback into our ongoing work.

Sincerely,
