

NURSINGWEEK 2016

Nurses: With you every step of the way

Nursing Week 2016 allows RNAO members to demonstrate pride in their profession and showcase the impact they have on the health system.

From taking MPPs to work and chapter dinners to workshops and lunch and learns, nurses will highlight the knowledge they bring to their work on behalf of Ontarians.

A full list of Nursing Week events is available on RNAO's website: <http://nursingweek.rnao.ca/eventlist>

Here are just a few taking place:

RNAO media conference: Release of a landmark report on the gap in Health Minister's plan for health system transformation

Monday, May 9
9:30 - 10:30 a.m.

*111 Wellesley Street West (Queen's Park media studio)
Toronto*

RNAO BPSO media conference: Leeds, Grenville and Lanark District Health Unit

Tuesday, May 10
2:30 - 4:30 p.m.

*458 Laurier Blvd.
Brockville*

RNAO BPSO media conference: Thunder Bay Regional Health Science Centre/
Thunder Bay District Health Unit/St. Joseph's Care Group/ Pioneer Ridge LTC

Wednesday, May 11
12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

*63 Carrie Street (Georgian Room, St. Joseph's Heritage)
Thunder Bay*

RNAO BPSO media conference: North Bay Nurse Practitioner led-clinic

Thursday, May 12
8:00 - 10:00 a.m.

*524 Lakeshore Drive, Unit 1
North Bay*

RNAO BPSO media conference: Renfrew Victoria Hospital

Thursday, May 12
9:00 - 10:00 a.m.

*470 Raglan Street North (Groves Park Lodge -GEM Hall)
Renfrew*

RNAO's Nursing Career and Professional Development Showcase

Friday, May 13
8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

*370 King Street West (Hyatt Regency Hotel)
Toronto*